

BUSINESS AND FINANCIAL SERVICES

At its essence, the sophisticated practice of business and financial law allows businesses to maximize opportunities while minimizing disputes. Whether your business is in its initial phase or has a long history of success, is a closely-held family business or a public franchise, the need for quality representation is the same. The attorneys of Shulman Rogers' Business and Financial Services Practice are dedicated to providing our clients with coordinated legal counsel across a wide array of legal practices.

In today's complex and often turbulent financial environment, innovative approaches are required to ensure that our clients' business and financial objectives are fulfilled. Our interdisciplinary team of highly-skilled attorneys, many of whom bring years of experience from the country's largest law firms, is able to efficiently and adeptly address our clients' challenges, providing customized results for every situation.

We provide a broad spectrum of services including expertise in bankruptcy and creditors' rights, corporate law, employment and labor, entertainment law, exempt organizations, government contracts, immigration, intellectual property, international law, securities and tax. Because of the scope of our knowledge and skills, we are able to fully represent and support our clients in all of their business needs.
