Christopher C. Roberts has over 30 years experience as a business attorney focusing on mergers and acquisitions, securities, employment, business planning, tax, ESOPs, intellectual property, government contracts, and general corporate and commercial matters.

M&A transactions have included representing a public multi-national corporation with respect to its $380 million purchase of a national distribution business, and representing a private consulting and government contracts business with respect to its $23 million sale to a public company. Securities transactions in which Mr. Roberts has been involved include IPOs and other public offerings as well as a wide variety of private placements and venture capital transactions (including under Regulation S and Rules 506, 505 and 504 of Regulation D). He has also handled Rule 144 and Section 4(1½) transactions, and opinions of counsel regarding the removal of restrictive legends. Other business projects have included resolving shareholder disputes, preparing shareholder buy-sell agreements, operating agreements for limited liability companies, employment and consulting agreements, non-competition and confidentiality agreements, and stock bonus, option, SAR and other equity compensation plans. Mr. Roberts, who has represented companies as well as selling shareholders in ESOP transactions, has been a member of The ESOP Association for approximately 17 years.
