A pragmatic, efficient and client-oriented attorney and a nationally recognized transactional real estate attorney, Sam Spiritos is currently the Chair of the Real Estate Department.

Mr. Spiritos' practice consists of commercial and multiple-lot residential real estate transactions. Mr. Spiritos has successfully structured, negotiated, documented and closed all types of real estate transactions, including the acquisition, development, leasing, financing and refinancing of large mixed-use projects, retail projects, shopping centers, multi-story office buildings, multi-family residential complexes, hotel and recreational complexes, including real estate and loan portfolio acquisitions. His involvement commences with the due diligence, the negotiation of the purchase contract, preparation of development agreements and cross easement agreements, and continues through the construction, development/redevelopment, architectural and engineering process, the leasing process and the financing process, including the loan application, review and modification of the loan commitment letter, preparation and review of the final loan documentation, and concludes with the closing of the transaction, including analysis of issues relating to the issuance of title insurance.

Mr. Spiritos' finance practice consists of commercial loan transactions, particularly acquisitions and development financings, asset based lending, health care financings, construction and permanent loans, retail, office and hotel development and financing, and workouts.
