Alexander C. Vincent is a shareholder in the Commercial Litigation Department of Shulman Rogers. He specializes in helping businesses, entrepreneurs, and individuals enforce their contract rights, protect their trade secrets and confidential commercial information, collect their debts, resolve complex commercial disputes (both in and out of court), and litigate claims involving business torts, unfair competition, disloyalty and dishonesty by employees and corporate officers, and fraudulent conduct. Mr. Vincent practices regularly in both State and Federal courts in Maryland, Virginia, and the District of Columbia. He has also appeared specially in Federal courts in Illinois and Nevada.

Prior to joining Shulman Rogers, Mr. Vincent was an associate at Berliner, Corcoran & Rowe, L.L.P., in Washington, D.C. There, Mr. Vincent specialized in civil litigation in a wide variety of matters involving commercial disputes, insurance defense, legal malpractice, civil-rights issues, defamation, and the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act. Representative cases include: Raymen v. United Seniors Ass'n, Inc., 409 F. Supp. 2d 15 (D.D.C. 2006), aff'd w/o opinion, No. 06-7013 (D.C. Cir. Nov. 15, 2006); You Hao Chen v. TECRO, No. CV-04-1482-JFW (VBKx) (C.D. Cal. 2004).

Before entering private practice, Mr. Vincent served as a legal fellow and counsel with the United States Senate Committee on the Judiciary. He also spent five years as a legislative aide and campaign consultant for two U.S. Senate committees, and he managed two campaigns for the Pennsylvania House of
