

SUCCESSFUL COUNTERCLAIM AGAINST FORMER EMPLOYEE WHO SUED FOR COMMISSIONS

Our client, a real estate brokerage firm, was sued by a former salesperson seeking allegedly unpaid commissions owed to him. Shulman Rogers's Employment & Labor Law Practice Group brought a counterclaim alleging that the salesperson had breached his contractual and fiduciary duties to our client. The Circuit Court for Montgomery County, Maryland entered a judgment in favor of our client which required the salesperson to pay our client monetary damages.

PRACTICE AREAS

Employment and Labor
Law