

SHULMAN ROGERS CONTINUES TO SERVE AS GENERAL COUNSEL TO THE AUTO TRADES FOUNDATION

January 1, 2009

Shulman Rogers, through the efforts of Larry Shulman and Courtney Sydnor, an associate in the Litigation Practice Group, continues to serve as General Counsel to the Foundation and promote efforts to bring the MCPS high school auto technology curriculum together with area automotive dealers to enrich to students' education and provide them with unique auto industry opportunities. Learn more about the Auto Trades Foundation and its sister organizations the Construction Trades Foundation and the Information Technology Foundation, at <http://www.mcps.k12.md.us/departments/foundations>.

ATTORNEYS

Lawrence A. Shulman