

Kelsey Razmic

Associate

T 410-520-1337

F 301-230-2891

E krazmic@shulmanrogers.com

Kelsey Razmic is a skilled litigator representing businesses and individuals in commercial litigation matters. She brings a proactive, client-centered approach to every case. Known for strong analytical abilities and clear communication, Kelsey collaborates with clients to develop comprehensive strategies to achieve the best possible outcomes.

With a sharp eye for detail and a thorough understanding of procedural law, Kelsey excels in preparing high-quality legal documents and providing effective strategic support for clients throughout the litigation process. From conducting extensive discovery to preparing for depositions and court appearances, she is a trusted ally in helping clients navigate the complexities of litigation. While Kelsey's practice focuses heavily on business disputes, and intellectual property, she has significant experience in professional liability, premise liability and complex personal injury matters. She practices regularly in both state and federal courts.

Kelsey previously worked as an associate at a mid-size civil litigation defense firm, where she developed and implemented litigation strategies,

Bar & Court Admissions

District of Columbia

Maryland

U.S. District Court for the District of Maryland

Education

University of Baltimore
School of Law, J.D., 2021,
Magna Cum Laude

Frostburg State University,
B.A., 2014

prepared pleadings, drafted and argued motions and conducted discovery.

During law school, she served as an Associate Comments Editor for the University of Baltimore Law Review, participated in the Saul Ewing Civil Advocacy Clinic and worked as a summer law clerk for a mid-size civil litigation firm. After law school, Kelsey served as a judicial law clerk for the Honorable Douglas R.M. Nazarian, Appellate Court of Maryland. She is a member of the Maryland and District of Columbia bars.

When not busy with legal work, Kelsey enjoys spending time with family, golfing and enjoying the outdoors.

WWW.SHULMANROGERS.COM