A corporate associate at Shulman Rogers, Claire Allenbach helps business clients navigate the full lifecycle of their legal needs, from formation through growth and transition. She advises on entity governance and ownership structure, mergers and acquisitions, and commercial contracts, with additional experience supporting clients on commercial real estate acquisitions, financing, and dispositions.

Hands-on and detail-oriented, she drafts the foundational documents that keep businesses running, including operating agreements and organizational filings, working closely with clients to make sure the details are right.

Claire has been recognized as a Maryland Rising Stars® honoree in Business & Corporate (2025-2026) and is a member of the Maryland State Bar Association.
