Kyle Kirby provides real estate clients with effective and efficient representation, guiding them through their transactions to ensure positive results. With an eye for detail, his collaborative and thoughtful approach helps clients achieve their goals.

Kyle represents both commercial and residential real estate clients in transactions involving contract negotiation and drafting, survey and title review, financing, organizational documentation, closing, and post-closing procedures. His work for both buyers and sellers provides him with comprehensive expertise on the transactions he handles, allowing him to give universal guidance on transactions. Kyle has a breadth of experience in a wide range of real estate-related matters, including easements, rights of way, leases, commercial and residential development, planning and zoning, and dispute resolution.

A transactional real estate attorney, Kyle has frequently been involved with a variety of sophisticated commercial real estate transactions for institutional property owners, investors, developers, and Real Estate Investment Trusts, often handling multi-million dollar commercial real estate transactions. He represents and advises clients regarding various types of real property, including commercial, industrial, mixed-use, office buildings, and the development of large-scale community and residential development projects.
